

The Minister of Arts and Sciences provides for the study of many arts, sciences, and pastimes of the Middle Ages and Renaissance with regard to period culture and technology, methods for producing historically accurate artifacts, and performances, both to broaden individuals knowledge and to enhance the atmosphere at Society events. They do this through research, study, and practice, and then share their results with others, either directly or via guest teachers.

